

There is an ancient legend about a time in the history of humanity when society so abused wisdom that wise men decided to take the secret of happiness and success away from man and hide it where mankind would never find it again. The big question was—where should they hide it?

The Magic Key to Happiness and Success

A council was called by the chief of the wise men to discuss this question. The lesser of the wise man said, “We will bury the secret of happiness and success into the dark depths of the earth.”

The chief wise man responded, “No, that will never do, for mankind will dig deep down into the earth and find it.” Then they said, “Well we will sink the secret of happiness and success into the dark depths of the deepest ocean.” But again, the chief wise man replied, “No not there, for humankind will surely learn to dive into the dark depths of the ocean and will find it.”

Then, one of the lesser wise man said, “We will take it to the top of the highest mountain and hide it there.” But again, the chief wise man said, “No for humankind will eventually climb even the highest mountain and find it, and again take it up for themselves.”

Then, the chief wise man said, “Here is what we will do with the secret of happiness and success. We will hide it deep inside every individual, for they will never think to look for it there.” To this day according to legend, people have been running back and forth across the earth – digging, diving, climbing, in search of something that they already possess within themselves.
